

Please do not relax the ownership rules any further until a comprehensive public hearing has taken place. Current deregulation has created a mess, loss of jobs, lack of innovation, and most important...where is the public service commitment. The airwaves are owned by the public or did we sell them off too!